Dear parents/carers,

Re: World Book Day and Red Nose Day 2019

World Book Day takes place next half-term on Thursday 7th March 2019. It celebrates the value of books and reading, especially for children.

As part of World Book Day, your child can come into school on Thursday 7th March dressed as their favourite book character. We are informing you now to give you enough time to find or make a costume. It could be something you put together over the holidays! All children will also be writing a book review in class on the day on the book their character is from, so if you have the book at home please bring it in.

We will not be asking for donations towards World Book Day this year, as we have a number of events taking place in school over the next half-term.

We will once again be selling Red Noses in school. The School Council will be selling them each breaktime during w/c 11th March and they will be priced at £1.25 each.

Children are then asked to come to school wearing red on Friday 15th March to celebrate Red Nose Day. Please could any noses purchased only be worn on this day. Once again, we will not be asking for any further donations, as the money we raise from selling the noses within school will be donated to Comic Relief.

Thank you for your continued support.

Kind regards

Mrs C Townson
